How to Submit an Assignment

TITLE SCREEN 1:
How to Submit an Assignment

NARRATOR: Welcome to the "How to Submit an Assignment" demonstration.

NARRATOR: After you have completed this demonstration, you will be able to:

1. Identify the difference between Turnitin and non-Turnitin submission links
2. Identify the acceptable file types for Turnitin and non-Turnitin submission links
3. Name your assignment file using the naming convention provided with the assignment submission link
4. Submit an assignment using a Turnitin submission link
5. Submit an assignment using a non-Turnitin submission link

NARRATOR: This demonstration is broken down into five steps. To return to a specific step for review, please click on the appropriate link from the menu on the left.

       CALLOUT: Highlight menu on the left.

NARRATOR: In your online courses, you will be required to submit various types of assignments. When submitting these assignments, you will submit them using either a Turnitin submission link or a non-Turnitin submission link, depending on the nature of the assignment. Turnitin is a plagiarism prevention tool, which will allow you to be proactive in identifying potential plagiarism issues. For more information about Turnitin and Walden University's Academic Integrity policy visit the Academic Integrity area in the left navigation bar of your classroom.

NARRATOR: Let's start by taking a look at the difference between Turnitin and non-Turnitin submission links.

TITLE SCREEN 2:
Step 1: Identify the Difference Between Turnitin and Non-Turnitin Submission Links

   NARRATOR: Step 1: Identify the Difference Between Turnitin and Non-Turnitin Submission Links

NARRATOR: When you navigate to an assignment, there will be a submission link underneath the directions.

       CALLOUT: Highlight assignment submission link.

NARRATOR: The assignment submission link will either be a Turnitin submission link or a non-Turnitin submission link. To identify whether the assignment link that you see is a Turnitin or non-Turnitin submission link, look for the type of link that is available for you to click on in order to submit your assignment.

NARRATOR: Turnitin submission links are identified by a View/Complete link. If you see a View/Complete link present, the assignment is being submitted via Turnitin.

       CALLOUT: Highlight View/Complete link in Turnitin submission link.

NARRATOR: Non-Turnitin submission links are identified by the hyperlinked title of the assignment submission link.

CALLOUT: Highlight hyperlinked title in non-Turnitin submission link.

NARRATOR: Now that we have identified the difference between a Turnitin and non-Turnitin submission link, let's take a look at the types of files that can be submitted to each.

TITLE SCREEN 3:
Step 2: Identify the Acceptable File Types for Turnitin and Non-Turnitin Submission Links

NARRATOR: Step 2: Identify the Acceptable File Types for Turnitin and Non-Turnitin Submission Links

NARRATOR: Once you have identified the type of submission link that is located on an assignment page, it is important to understand the types of files that can be submitted using that submission link.

NARRATOR: Turnitin submission links will accept the following file types:

1. Microsoft Word
2. WordPerfect
3. PostScript
4. PDF
5. HTML
6. RTF
7. Plain text

   CALLOUT: Display screen of Turnitin submission link accepted file types.

NARRATOR: Non-Turnitin submission links will accept all file types, including Microsoft Excel and Microsoft PowerPoint, as well as any other type of file that you might need to attach when submitting an assignment.

   CALLOUT: Display screen of non-Turnitin submission link accepted file types.

NARRATOR: Let's continue by taking a look at how to name an assignment file using the naming convention provided with an assignment submission link.

TITLE SCREEN 4:
Step 3: Name Your Assignment File Using the Naming Convention Provided With the Assignment Submission Link

NARRATOR: Step 3: Name Your Assignment Using the File Naming Convention Provided With the Assignment Submission Link

NARRATOR: Before submitting a file using a submission link, you must name it according to the file naming convention that is provided with the assignment submission link on your assignment page. Using this file naming convention will ensure that your Instructor can locate, grade, and return your assignment to you in a timely manner.

   CALLOUT: Highlight the assignment submission link.

NARRATOR: To locate the file naming convention that you need, navigate to the assignment submission link and read the submission directions. These directions provide guidance on how to name your assignment file.

   CALLOUT: Highlight the file naming convention in the assignment submission link directions.

NARRATOR: Once you have determined the appropriate name for your file, save your assignment file.

NARRATOR: Remember that you must save your assignment file before submitting it via the assignment submission link.

NARRATOR: Now that you have learned how to name your assignment file correctly, let's take a look at how to submit an assignment using a Turnitin submission link

TITLE SCREEN 5:
Step 4: Submit an Assignment Using a Turnitin Submission Link

NARRATOR: Step 4: Submit an Assignment Using a Turnitin Submission Link

NARRATOR: Turnitin submission links are the primary type of assignment submission links you will use to submit assignments to your Instructor.

NARRATOR: If a Turnitin submission link is present on your Assignment page, you can submit your assignment by clicking on the View/Complete link.

CALLOUT: Click on the View/Complete link.

NARRATOR: After you have clicked on the View/Complete link, you will be directed to the Turnitin Assignment Inbox for the particular assignment you are submitting. Here you can hover your mouse over the Info icon to display the assignment submission directions that appeared on your Assignment page above the View/Complete link. You may find it helpful to view this information to double check that you have named your assignment document correctly.

CALLOUT: Hover over the Info icon.

NARRATOR: Next, click the Submit button to the right of the name of the assignment you want to submit.

CALLOUT: Click the Submit button.

NARRATOR: Scroll down and choose the appropriate Paper Item Submission Method from the dropdown menu. You can either select Single File Upload, which will allow you to attach and upload a single document, or Cut & Paste Upload, which will allow you to copy and paste text into a message box to upload. It is preferred that you select the Single File Upload option from the Paper Item Submission Method dropdown menu.

CALLOUT: Highlight the Paper Item Submission Method field and select the Single File Upload option from the dropdown menu.

NARRATOR: Next, fill in the Submission Title field with the file naming convention outlined in the submission directions, which are located with the Info icon in the Assignment Inbox or above the View/Complete link on your Assignment page.

CALLOUT: Type the file naming convention of the assignment in the Submission Title field.

NARRATOR: Then, to attach your assignment document, click on the Browse button and select the assignment document that you want to upload.

CALLOUT: Click the Browse button and demonstrate how to browse and select assignment document.

NARRATOR: After you have located your assignment document, click on the Upload button at the bottom of the page.

CALLOUT: Click the Upload button.

NARRATOR: On the next page, you may review your submission. Once you have finished reviewing your submission, click the Submit button.

CALLOUT: Click the Submit button.

NARRATOR: Finally, you will see a confirmation that will indicate your assignment document was successfully submitted.

CALLOUT: Highlight the successful assignment document submission page notification.

NARRATOR: Now that you have submitted your assignment for Turnitin review and grading, you can also view the Originality Report for your submitted assignment, as well as download a copy of it, either in its original format or as a PDF.

NARRATOR: To access the Originality Report for your submitted assignment, first click on the Assignment Inbox tab at the top of the page.

CALLOUT: Click the Assignment Inbox tab.

NARRATOR: Next, click on the View button.

CALLOUT: Click the View button.

NARRATOR: Then, in the new window that opens, click on the Originality button in the upper-left corner to display the Originality Report findings for your assignment submission.

CALLOUT: Click the Originality button.

NARRATOR: To exit the Originality Report, click the X in the upper-right corner of the window.

CALLOUT: Click the X in the upper-right corner of the window.

NARRATOR: Now that you are back in the Assignment Inbox, you can download a copy of your submitted assignment by clicking on the Download icon.

CALLOUT: Click the Download icon.

NARRATOR: After you have clicked on the Download icon, you can select from the dropdown menu to download your submitted assignment in its Originally submitted format or in PDF format.

CALLOUT: Select Originally submitted format link from the dropdown menu.

NARRATOR: You will then be prompted to open or save your submitted assignment file to your computer.

CALLOUT: Highlight the submitted assignment file download process.

NARRATOR: Now that you have learned how to submit an assignment using a Turnitin submission link, let's take a look at how to submit an assignment using a non-Turnitin submission link.

TITLE SCREEN 6:

Step 5: Submit an Assignment Using a Non-Turnitin Submission Link

NARRATOR: Step 5: Submit an Assignment Using a Non-Turnitin Submission Link

NARRATOR: Assignments that cannot be submitted to Turnitin will be submitted to your Instructor via a non-Turnitin submission link.

NARRATOR: If a non-Turnitin submission link is present on your Assignment page, you can submit your assignment by clicking first on the hyperlinked title of the assignment.

      CALLOUT: Click on hyperlinked title of assignment.

NARRATOR: Next, fill in the Submission box with any pertinent information about your assignment that you would like to share with your Instructor.

      CALLOUT: Type information in the Submission box.

NARRATOR: You can then attach your assignment file by clicking on the Browse My Computer button.

      CALLOUT: Click the Browse My Computer button

NARRATOR: Locate your assignment file in the file menu and then click Open.

      CALLOUT: Demonstrate how to browse for and select assignment document.

      CALLOUT: Click Open.

NARRATOR: Next, you may add any additional comments pertaining to your assignment in the Comments box.

      CALLOUT: Type additional comments in the Comments box.

NARRATOR: When you are ready to submit your completed assignment to your Instructor for review and grading, click Submit.

      CALLOUT: Click Submit.

NARRATOR: Finally, click OK.

      CALLOUT: Click OK.

NARRATOR: Congratulations! You have now completed the "How to Submit an Assignment" demonstration.
